

Reader Spotlight

What did you enjoy most about this year's Read-a-thon?

"Reading good books to my heart's content without feeling guilty. Handing in the money."
-Emma Bender, age 71

"Thinking that I would be helping people."
-Julia Bender, age 9

"We get a t-shirt!"
-Jeffrey Maust, age 10

"The joint efforts with others to help support We Care."
-Martha Horst, age 73

"It's cool that I could raise money while reading."
-Joshua Martin, age 16

Why do you enjoy reading?

"To relax and go some place else."
-Matthew Roberson, age 10

"I enjoy reading books about science because I learn things that will be pertinent to my future career."
-Lyndon Gingerich, age 14

"It's interesting!"
-LaRonda Bender, age 12

"It's been a lifelong hobby...and enjoyable way to learn new things and presents an opportunity to grow and learn from other's experiences and mistakes."
-Martha Horst, age 73

What's the favorite book that you read during the 2011 Read-a-thon?

"Unlocked by Karen Kingsbury."
-Goldie Huber, age 67

"Same Kind of Different As Me by Ron Hall."
-Emma Bender, age 71

"Heaven is For Real by Todd & Colton Burpo."
-Martha Horst, age 73

"The Adventures of Rusty & Ryan by Shari Beth Martin."
-Trent Orendorf, age 11

"Bible Story Book."
-Janessa Maust, age 8

What would you say to those who might consider reading in the 2012 Read-a-thon?

"It's very fun to raise money by reading."
-Joel Gingerich, age 12

"Do it...it's awesome!"
-Trent Orendorf, age 11

"It's a great way to raise money for We Care and it also gives you a chance to read more."
-Twila Bender, age 14

"Go for it!"
-Mary Boll, age 63

www.wecareprogram.org
251-368-8818